invitations:

Think outside the envelope! Your save the date and invitation will be the first impression of your wedding, so be sure to customize to complete your overall theme. Use textured or patterned paper, intrigue guests with a boxed invitation or add a personal touch to showcase your love story.

Fashion

Accessorize! The all white ensemble is no longer the desired look and brides are customizing their wedding day attire with bold, stylish accessories. If you desire vintage romance, add a birdcage veil or opt for a stunning hair accessory like a whimsical headband or floral accent piece.

Spurge on shoes and add a splash of color or sparkle to your wedding day ensemble.

Home sweet home

Small, intimate affairs at home are becoming even more popular. Couples are keeping their guest list small allowing more flexibility in their budget to customize details such as the menu, homemade favors, invitations, attire, etc.

custom culinaire:

Get inspired from your personal experiences and customize your reception menu.

- Engagement in Paris = Five course French cuisine paired with exquisite wines
- Favorite Restaurant = Family style reception featuring your Thai, Italian, American or Mexican favorites or work with the chef to mimic a recipe from your favorite restaurant
- Hometown Influence = Cajun style cuisine, Spanish tapas or mix in organic ingredients from your home
